PASTORAL PLAN: There is on-going discussion and consultation about the future of our local churches. No one wants to lose their church. It is not always necessary to do so. We need to see how in, say 5 or 10 years' time, the church in our area will continue with less full-time priests and perhaps less people attending church and volunteering for ministry and service. Some may feel it does not concern them. Our younger parishioners will be more impacted. So please read the leaflet at the back of church which takes up this issue from the Archdiocesan Synod and we will meet soon to discuss it all. We will invite some of our younger parishioners to join us. Those wishing to take part in a discussion about this please ask Mgr John.

PENTECOST CELEBRATIONS: The Two Cathedrals Walk at Pentecost takes place on 8th June starting at 3.00pm starting at the Anglican Cathedral and end at the Metropolitan. All are welcome.

ABORTION ALERT: There is a proposal tabled in Parliament which will allow abortion unto birth. We must ask our MPs to oppose the amendment put forward by MP Tonia Anoniazzi. Please send your objection to the Constituency office of your local MP or directly to them at the House of Commons, Westminster, London, SW1P or online.

PRAYER CIRCLE: Requests for prayer may be made by filling in a form from the box on the left hand transept of the church before you reach the Lady Altar. The intention is prayed for each day and remains on the list for 6 months. For more information call Bernie on 0151 928 2558.
